MODERN METHODS.

How They Have Improved a Standard Remedy.

In the 17th century a wave of excitement swept over England and France when the medical profession discovered such wonderful curative elements in the cod's liver.

In the 18th century cod liver oil was imported and used extensively by physicians in this country, but it was found to be adulterated to a great extent, and the useless heavy oil which enveloped the medicinal elements, a great hindrance to its medicinal value.

In 1855 a famous physician from the Hague went to Norway and after two years of experiment and research produced a light-brown oil from the cod's livers which was said to be more valuable than the pale yellow oil, but the taste and odor was so repulsive that it frequently caused such nausea that it made it very unpopular.

The most valuable discovery, however, was later made by two eminent French chemists, who after years of research discovered an extractive and concentrating process, by which all of the medicinal, healing and body building elements of the cod's liver are separated from the useless and nauseating oil. These recovered medicinal elements combined with peptone, of iron make Vinol the most scientific and valuable cod liver preparation which the world has ever known.

Vinol is so rich in the elements of life that it imparts vigor to all debilitated and feeble conditions and is unexcelled as a remedy for all pulmonary troubles.

Try Vinol on our guarantee to return your money if it fails to give satisfaction.

Thanks.

We have received from C. G. Glover a copy of the Daily Oklahoman issued on Saturday, Nov. 16—the day on which Oklahoma was admitted into the sisterhood of States. This issue was a 16 page, 7 column daily paper. The average daily circulation for the month of October was 21,040. Our readers may have some idea of the city and surrounding country from the daily circulation of this paper.

Shoots Himself in Head.

At Guthrie, Ky., George M. Gallaway, until a short time ago a bartender in a saloon which closed with other Todd county saloons, committed suicide by shooting himself. He had been on a protracted spree.

STOLEN

Money Orders Used to Swindle Jewelers.

Through stolen postoffice money orders robbers swindled Cincinnati jewelers out of more than $1,000 worth of jewelry and cash. The postoffice at Petersburg, Ky., was robbed by a band of men who went to the town in an automobile. They took money order blanks. The jewelers went to the local postoffice to get the orders cashed that they took in payment for goods. It was then learned that the orders had been filled in by the robbers.

The orders had been made out in favor of the merchants victimized by persons who wished to make a purchase. Jewelry would be bought and the difference would be taken in cash.

HIS TROUBLES TOO GREAT.

Cuts His Throat and Wrist.

Howard Maxwell, deposed president of the Borough Bank, of Brooklyn, N. Y., under indictment for grand larceny and forgery, was released from jail on $30,000 bail on November 25, and committed suicide on the 26th. He cut his throat and wrist with a razor and pen knife in the bath room of his home and died at Long Island College Hospital. Maxwell, who was locked up four days, appeared hopelessly despondent.

The final Coffee Substitute ever made, has recently been produced by Dr. Shoop, of Racine, Wis. You don't have to boil it twenty or thirty times to say, "the doctor, 'Health Coffee'" is really the closest "Health imitation" ever yet produced. Not a grain of coffee is in either. It has no taste. It is a imitation of made from pure toasted cereals or grains, with malt, nuts, etc. Really it would fool an expert—won't he be unknowingly drink it for Coffee. For sale by Roth Bros. 21-41

Wilson Surprises Pie Men.

Gov. Wilson's declination to have anything to do with the distribution of Federal patronage in the State is a source of much comment in political circles. The Administration would be glad to turn over to him the absolute control of the postmasterships and other Federal offices in the State, and the idea that the Governor has informed heads of departments that he would not make recommendations is considered miraculous by the "bread and butter brigade."

In the meantime, the Governor is receiving stacks of letters in every mail from candidates for Federal office, and is simply referring them to the proper department without comment.—Washington Cor. Courier-Journal.

FACTS & OBSERVATIONS

Events at Campion and Stanton, Kentucky.

CAMPION.

We arrived here on Thursday night at 7 o'clock and stayed until Saturday. We were surprised to learn that natural gas will be discontinued in the town on Dec. 1st. Many people "half froze" last winter but were without coal. Now they are supplied with coal and the gas will be out. We are quite sure there has been a reckless waste of gas by consumers at Campion and also at Hazel Green. The supply would no doubt last longer if the owners of gas fields would put in meters. Then consumers would be economic in use of it. A good thing can be abused.

About 100,000 railroad ties are stacked at Campion for shipment over Mountain Central to L. & E. The distance is about 13 miles and the freight is 11¢c on each tie. Transportation by wagon is 12¢c. We feel confident that passengers over the Central will in the future be more comfortable in cold weather.

We were called on Saturday morning for breakfast, walked about 4 miles and were on time for 5:40 train. The morning was cold and rainy and the road slick. The man with a lantern was not going our way. As we passed a dwelling we heard a young girl playing on a piano and singing: "There's No Place Like Home." How appropriate!

Forward and homeward we directed our footsteps.

MISCELLANEOUS.

As we go up and down in the earth we see and hear things political, "wise and otherwise." Saw some folks who told why the political landslide took place. There is a oneness of opinion that something has happened to the Democratic party. We accepted the conclusion. Crookedness in committee work and primary. Hargisism and machine rule, discrimination between Powers and Hargis are assigned as the chief causes. That's the talk.

We saw two men pass us in building and enter a room. They seemed to have difficulty in fastening the door. In a few seconds they walked out, one wiping his mouth. They certainly did not think that our eyes were X-ray, that our smelling machine was in good order. We did not see the necessity of so much secrecy. "Twas all as plain as if they had stopped before us in the hall and said: "Parson excuse us for taking a nip." We smiled and thought. Liquor is said to be good for sick editors and lawyers and other animals, but we quit drinking more than 30 years ago. We have snuffed the breezes of both oceans, have grown faint in high altitudes of the Rockies, have basked under tropical plants charmed by sweet music, have exposed ourself to heat and cold, have grown weary with long tramps for Facts and Observations, have been in love, have attended social functions and political conventions, have heard other fellows cuss and tell yarns, have seen some queer sights, but have thus far seen no necessity for whiskey drinking socially, hygienically, morally, philosophically or otherwise considered. This would be a queer world if everybody acted as every other body. It is good neither to eat flesh nor drink wine or anything whereby thy brother stumbleth or is offended or made weak.

Do it now is a very good rule with regard to your Christmas shopping.

HOTELS MAY LOSE CHARTERS

For Suffering Gaming in Indiana.

The Indiana Appellate Court reversed judgment in the French Lick Springs and West Baden Hotel cases.

After many attempts to reach the gambling situation in those hotels, rendered futile by the unwillingness of the Orange county authorities to act, Gov. Hanly concocted the scheme of going after the hotel companies on the ground that as corporations holding charters from the State, they were, in permitting gambling, doing something which they were not authorized to do and for which the charters could be revoked.

Don't think that piles can't be cured. Thousands of obstinate cases have been cured by Doan's Ointment, 50 cents at any drug store.

WANTS COURSE IN COURTSHIP AND MARRIAGE IN SCHOOLS.

Illinois Superintendent of Public Instruction So Declares.

State Superintendent of Public Instruction Blair, of Illinois, proposed last week before the Chicago English Club in Fullerton Hall of the Art Institute that a course in courtship and marriage be added to the Illinois public school curriculum.

The superintendent would not have the usual sort of classes of instruction in love making, but wants the pupils taught by indirect means. For example, says Mr. Blair, a study of Enoch Arden or Miles Standish would give the pupils a right idea of how to propose. Mr. Blair did not explain to what length he desired the pupils to go into the subject, but was positive in his assertion that a general idea of courtship should be given the pupils.

"I can see no reason why this subject should be avoided," he said. "This department in public school education is unique and deserves further consideration."

Mrs. Mary Kelley, wife of Peter Kelley, farmer, living just outside of the city limits, on the Winchester pike says: "Doan's Kidney Pills were so beneficial and positive in their results that I am compelled to place great faith in them. I was in quite a state of mind and with a complication of kidney troubles. The symptoms were so marked as to leave no possibility of doubt in my mind as to what kind of medicine I required; so on noticing some testimonials of the strongest kind respecting Doan's Kidney Pills, my husband purchased a box for me at F. ## GREAT DISGRACE

For Madison County. Prospective Jurors in Great Detachment at Beattyville.

We clip the following from the Richmond Clinch of November 27. The facts are a great reproach to the guilty and shows the sinful nature of men when temptation is before them. These facts are a strong argument in favor of local option. The article reads:

The most disgraceful episode in the annals of Madison county occurred when about fifty of her citizens got beastly drunk at Beattyville. These men were a part of the special venire of 150 citizens of this city and county, summoned to try the case of the French-Marecum murder trial. The conduct of these forty or fifty or sixty men, whatever the number, beggars description. They proceeded on their arrival at Beattyville to patronize the only saloon in that town or in that whole section of Eastern Kentucky, and within a few hours these men were converted into a howling mob, driving everything before them—as one man expressed it—“terrifying the mountaineers themselves who had been accustomed to certain degrees of drunken disorder, but never before in all their lives had witnessed such an uproar and detraction. Every boarding house in the city was turned into a cage of human wild cats. Doors were forced open, furniture smashed, and vomit besattered not only upon the beds and carpets, but upon the dining table of one boarding house. The little bathroom was taken possession of bodily by these people and five bar tenders were kept busy dishing out the fluid intoxicants until the early morning hours and men lay like logs in the filth upon the floor in the bar room and on the streets of the city. Three of them received severe injuries by falls while intoxicated. One man had his nose split open, another had his knee dislocated, and still another fell forty feet from a bridge, narrowly escaping death, receiving several broken bones.

The court house presented a spectacle which has no parallel in court annals of this country so far as we know, owing to the fact that when the names of these men were called for examination for jury service, they were often asleep or in such a drunken stupor as to be wholly unfit for consideration.

To Special Judge Dorsey due

the thanks of these men for not summarily punishing them.

The Peace Officers of Beattyville treated their distinguished guests with such indulgent consideration as to place them under life-long obligation to them also. Those citizens who managed to stay sober in the midst of this Bacchusian debauch, declare that the disgraceful scenes enacted could not be overdrawn or exaggerated. Men who had not tasted liquor for months, because of local option enforcement here, yielded to the temptation of their convivial surroundings and fell by the way side with the rest of the poor grand masters in drunkenness. It seemed to be a deliberate effort to drink Beattyville dry and put the saloon out of business before the local option law takes effect on December 1, which will put a stop to the existence of this last “breathing hole” in Eastern Kentucky.

The Clinch refrains from going into further particulars, which it can and will do if necessary. Those who are morally and legally responsible for all of this disorder, should make their peace with their neighbors and friends here at home and had as well extend the Clinch thanks for its indulgence along with Judge Dorsey and the Peace Officers of Beattyville.

Every citizen guiltless of such disgraceful behavior may well blush for the reputation of this great county, in its present ignorance. When sobriety, wisdom and decorum are the only traits to be exhibited on such an important mission as these men were summoned for, the double disgrace of seeing them descend to a scale below the level of even him whom they had been summoned to try, must call for apology most ample and repentance most abject and complete. Not only that, but on this venue there were men who were not qualified for jury service; whilst others, as we hear, would not be selected on a jury in Madison county. Why was this travesty permitted? Why was the Commonwealth put to the expense of nearly $75 for attendance of men who were not housekeepers, and $500 for others intoxicated during court? No wonder an attorney, as is reported, declared the county might be scoured to find men less suited than some of these for the sacred office of jurymen.

As a newspaper worthy of the name; worthy of the respect of its thousands of its readers, worthy of its own respect, and worthy of the great county upon whose fair name this brand of infamy has been, we hope, only temporarily placed, the Clinch condemns and repudiates the coarse conduct of those above described, and believes that the open saloon as such has by the awful behavior of its steel nail driven into its blood-stained coffin in Madison?

Then let's come!

For now in earnest have no time to waste in patching up leaves for the naked truth!

Guthrie's Cut Price Sale begins Saturday, Dec. 7th.

In Memoriam.

The faults of our Brothers we write upon the sand, their virtues upon the tablets of Love and Memory."

The memorial service of the Mt. Sterling Lodge of Elks No. 723, was held at the Methodist Church on Sunday afternoon. The members marched to the Church. The building was crowded. A. A. Hazlegrave was in charge of the services. Rev. J. L. Weber invoked God's blessing. Miss Mildred Davis presided at the organ in the prelude. The opening ceremony was a quartette by Messrs. Bussett, Hazelgrave, Wood and Senff. The orator of the occasion was Mr. J. L. Earlywine, the postmaster of Paris, Ky. His address abounded in lofty thought and poetic expression and was an exaltation of the Bible and Christianity. A duet by Wood and Senff followed the address.

ROTH BROS.' CASH GROCERY.

HARD TEST OF MAN'S PRIDE.
Dislikes to Apply to Woman Manager for a Situation.

A big city department store here has in its employ a woman whose ability finally gained for her a position of such importance that many persons wishing a situation were forced to apply to her. On her Judgment depended the fate of men seeking work in the grocery and hardware departments, the paint and the picture department. Soon it became apparent that the demand for labor was exceeding the supply. One day the proprietors of the store found themselves in the anomalous position of being short of help. One of the managers set out to discover the cause of this unprecedented scarcity.

"There are plenty of men looking for work of this kind," said one old clerk who was a good worker, "but they can't bring themselves to the point of applying to a woman for a situation. I wouldn't be here myself if I hadn't got this place before Miss A—— was raised to her present position. It's bad enough to have to work for a woman, but to work for a woman who is not even a maid in sand in his make-up is going to stand for."

The manager saw the force of the clerk's reasoning and the next day undertook to hire clerks for those departments himself.

AIRS OF ALL NATIONS.

Each Country Has its Own Particular Patriotic Song.

Here is a list of the national airs of nations—Argentina, "Old Miserere al Grito Sagrado"; Austria, "Gott Erhalte Unsere Kaiser"; Belgium, "La Brabantse"; Bohemia, "Was Song of the Hussites"; Brazil, "Hymn da Proclamação da Republ.;" Germany, "Thalia"; France, "Le Triomphe de l'Amour"; Germany, "Die Heilige Dreifaltigkeit"; Ecuador, "Salve, O Patria"; Egypt, "Salamat, Efendim"; Finland, "Varti Land"; France, "La Marianne"; Italy, "Il Di del Signore"; Switzerland, "Siegen Sie, Siegen Sie"; Hungary, "Ald Meg a Magyar"; Italy, "Royal March"; Japan, "Kensei Gyo"; Mexico, "Mexicanos, al Grito de Guerra"; Persia, "Somay, Liberas, Se Salamanca"; Spain, "Alabado sea el Señor"; Uruguay, "Himno Nacional de la Republica Oriental del Uruguay"; Venezuela, "Gloria al Bravo Pueblo".

Parable of Life.

A little clock sat on a little table, watching the time away. The hour-hand bustled by, and taunted the hour-hand with, "What are you doing? You are getting over it once." "Very true," responded the hour-hand, "but without me you would know day from night." "Don't quarrel, you two," quipped the little second-hand, as he rolled round and round, "I am the one who makes time that either of you can't get rid of. In a quarter of a second time a thousand lives may be lost and at every stroke of my hand a soul is born." "He is only a child," said the hour-hand, weary, "With the stroke of his hand he can't stop time." And so the minute-hand went on its eternal way and the faster second-hand never paused and the little dial grew white in the moonlight that hung over one who was watching and waiting for that moment when his hour should be struck by the one in hand. At last! But without stopping, the little clock ticked on and on.

Balconing Records.

Many notable cups have been made on balloons. In 1849 Miss West started from St. Louis and came down in West Union County, N. Y., having made about 800 miles. This stood as the world's record for a long time. In 1869, when the Count de la Vandy sailed over into Brazil, his distance was about 1200 miles and he was in the air over 36 hours.

The present record for time was established by the German aerostatic society. They succeeded in remaining in the air over 51 hours—Göttingen magazine.

Mexican University.

A national university to be located in the City of Mexico is part of a scheme put forward by Justo Sierra, Mexican minister of public instruction, at the recent closing session of the Mexican Congress. This proposed university is intended to be modeled after the French plan, and to unite and coordinate the educational institutions of the republic as a whole with somewhat the same relations that the University of Paris has to the framework of French education.

Learned Lawyer's Plan.

One of the most eminent London surgeons at the beginning of the last century was Mr. Heywood. His industry was phenomenal, and so often were his scientific publications that the report of his case in the course of his life seemed complete unless his name was heard in connection with it. "Egad!" said a distinguished legal luminary of the day "we never have a homicide nor a suicide, nor any other crime now without a Heywood."

WOMEN IN INVENTIVE FIELD.
Many Useful Articles the Product of Female Ingenuity.

Women are stamping at a lively gait into the field of invention. There are many successful devices patented in the names of women, and a few of these have made large returns to inventors. One woman has invented a device as small as a wasp, as cheap as $6.00 per dozen, which is a safe and effective device of a switch-bottomed paper bag. The glove fasteners which have almost superseded the old-fashioned buttons and buttonsholes are the invention of a woman.

Invention has apparently attained the dignity of a woman, and there are inventions, pins, axes, knives, stoves and baking dishes which are bearing their originality well over everyday in the year sales.

But women are not confined to any one group. Utica contractors have their powers.

A letterbox with a signal for the postman when there is a letter in the box is one of women's inventions. Another woman has invented an everlasting fluid for upholstery, guaranteeing against the loss of value of women's houses in the event of fire or accident. There are wrenches, locks, braces, alarm clocks, etc., and all sorts of patents issued to women.

WHAT THE LAWYERS GOT.

The Usual Thing When Two Friends Go to Law About Nothing.

Under the headline "An enormous strawberry bush" an American writer prints this story. "On the opposite side of two farms near R— there is a large gooseberry bush from which the two farmers have for years harvested the produce. What grows on the bush is the same as grows on the neighbors' bush, and the price of the agreement was the agreement."

Now aago the neighbors had a law suit, and he came to a compromise, and he came to a conclusion.

"The two neighbors are just beginning to grow grapes," he says.

This gives both parties the right to pick the grapes which grow on the other side of the line—just as it was originally—during the night to destroy the bush to such a contest.

A law suit followed, and a special judge was appointed to decide the case.

WAIT FOR THE Eleventh Great Red Letter Cut Price Sale

WALSH BROS.

Notice!

Nothing will be charged, nothing will be sent on approval during this sale. Every article will be marked in plain figures. No deviation from marked prices.

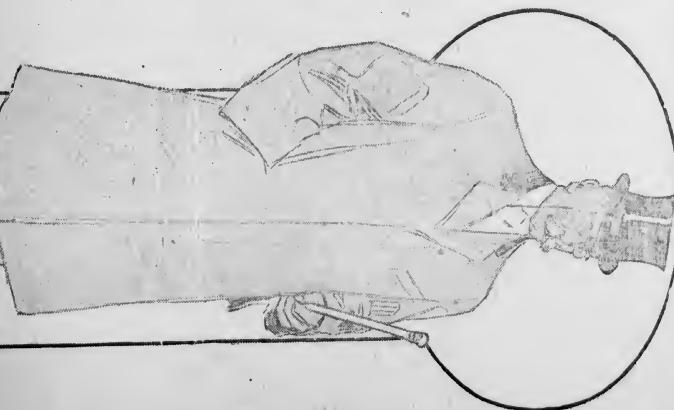

Which comes, we know, as a surprise to all, and right in the height of the season, when you need the goods, and Christmas shopping is at hand. Conditions in the East have reached the crisis; the stringency in the money market has come to a point where it is squeezing the manufacturers, who must have money to carry the coming season's business. We have been offered discounts on undue bills from abroad that reaches an ordinary profit, greater, in fact, we believe, than we could realize on our goods by holding them. We know that it will look like bad business judgment on our part to you for us, right now, in the heart of the season, to cut the life out of our goods and scatter profits to the winds. We know, and you know, that local conditions don't warrant this move, but foreign conditions makes it possible for us to cover our losses here by extremely liberal discounts offered by Eastern concerns; hence we cut the prices, and we cut them deep, and cut every article in the store. We don't do things by halves. Compare our prices with the self-styled high priests of honesty (?) who are plainly frenzied store-keepers, taking chances, and you will plainly see when the prices are cut that WALSH BROS. cut them sure enough.

Remember our goods are standard brands, our twenty years of honest merchandising in this town are the bulwarks of a bridge that will not collapse. Avoid the "Will o' the Wisp" fellows--wait for the big sale, which starts

Our store will be closed all day Thursday and Friday, December 5th and 6th, to mark down prices and arrange stocks. Wait! Stay at home, and come Saturday morning at 9 o'clock, when the BIG CUT PRICE SALE starts.

A Big Sale---A Determined Rush.

Owing to the new departments to be added to the store of Punch & Graves a Cut Sale is on and all goods are put at prices that will convert them into cash. The firm prefer to handle the cash to the removing of the stock from one store room to another, hence this Cut Sale. The highest grade goods known are put out at slighly prices. Great crowds have been attracted by these fine goods at reduced prices and it has been necessary to close the doors of the store at times that the trade might wait on with satisfaction. If the people would know what this enterprising firm have for them they can learn by reading their advertisement in this issue.

There has been extravagant trading, overbuying; a halt was called. Quit talking hard times.

NEED OF SURGICAL TRAINING. Some Things, at Least, That All People Should Know.

"Everybody ought to have surgical training enough to render aid to the injured in the case of a stab or cut in one of the limbs," said a St. Louis physician.

"If the blood flows freely, it is an indication that one or more blood vessels have been severed; if the flowing blood is dark red, it is an indication that an artery has been cut. If it is dark red it comes from a vein and the importance of this fact becomes apparent when an effort is made to stop the flow. Veins carry the blood to the heart, the arteries convey it to the organs. When a vein is severed, pressure should be applied to stop the flow, but in the case of an artery, pressure above or between the wound and the heart is necessary. Sometimes, in the case of an external artery, the pressure may be relieved and then pressure should be applied both above and below the wound. More than one man has died with a crowd looking on simply because none of the bystanders knew enough to stop the flow of blood from a artery. In such cases, however, with a knot in it, tied around the limb, will often answer the purpose. Even the pressure of a thumb will sometimes hold back the blood until a surgeon can apply more effective means."

OBJECTED TO LONG NAMES.

English Clergyman Had His Own Way at Christenings.

An English clergyman, Dr. Frederick Lee, was a proponent against a long string of Christian names, and proposed the clergyman should alter them at baptism, whether the parents were willing or not. It was said of him that he christened all the boys Frederick after himself and all the girls after the Virgin. The author of "The Life of Walter Pater" gives Dr. Lee's method of christening as follows:

"Name this child," he would say in his authoritative voice.

"Archibald Cholmondeley Constantine Frederick," perhaps the mother would whisper.

"Frederick," she would hear, to her amazement, and then would follow the formula of baptism.

In the vestry, of course, there would be a roar of protest.

"This child," Dr. Lee would reply, "will have to get his living in the world, and what do you want to handicap him with Archibald Campbell Cholmondeley and all the rest of them for? Anything, it's done, and can't be altered."

Rather in Bedroom.

A well known citizen of this community, who resides in the Ridge or North Side community, relates the following: "Not long since my wife went into the bedroom and was horrified to find a large rattlesnake wriggling from behind a bicycle that had been stored against the wall. The baby had crawled into the room a few moments before and was playing not three feet from the serpent. My wife attempted to strike the snake with a broom, but it sought refuge behind the bicycle wheel, where she could not get it. I quickly laid her in a neighboring chamber. She called to me, but by this time the snake had sought refuge under the bed, and I killed it with a load of shot from my gun. How long the snake had been in the room or just how it had got there nobody knows."—Gallatin, Tenn., Nashville American.

Women's Home Work in England. The sole committee of the British house of commons, in taking testimony recently in regard to the control and regulation of the conditions under which women work, is in one hundred per cent evidence of the terrible condition. The Women's Trade Union League said that the difficulty in organizing home workers was due to the fact that they were too poor to help themselves. This witness mentioned the case of a woman known to her who could not afford to pay even a cent for shirt making. She mentioned the case of another shirtmaker who received only 31 cents a dozen for making shirts. The witness produced blue cotton shirts which were made for 13½ cents a dozen. She said that without charitable assistance of poor relief relief persons who accepted these low wages could not exist.—Harper's Weekly.

In Berlin Streets.

Kaiser Wilhelm has just sanctioned a gigantic street improvement in Berlin, involving an expenditure of $27,500,000. It is proposed to widen the streets, to lay new pavements, to build and replace the present insignificant array of palaces, galleries, restaurants, and hotels, making the street one of the grandest thoroughfares in the world. It is announced that four German banks and one British bank will finance the project.

Rev. Horatio J. Burdette, returning to his home in southern California from a visit eastward, congratulates himself on his good luck and remarks that any kind of vacation east of the Rocky mountains is a waste of money, especially when the cost of living is so exorbitant, for Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets stop the most severe headache almost immediately, and cost only 15¢ a box.

PAIN

Pain in the head—pains in the lungs, has its cause, pain in the brain, pain in the prostate—and elsewhere usually. At least, so says Dr. Shoop, and to his patients he prescribes his Headache Tablets—called Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets. They are away from the market, and are the most effective, certainly, pain killer and tonic I ever heard of. Price 15¢ a box. Kind of mouldings. Pressed leather. Burner. After he left a telegram came announcing the death of a brother-in-law at Ripley, O. Henry came down town to find his father. He found his father sitting in their business house in a dying condition, unable to speak. Before any friends could be called the father was dead. Mr. Senior was born in Paris, France, in 1834 and came to America with his father at the age of 4 years. He had lived in our city nearly fifty years. He married Miss Anna Levi. She died 14 years ago. Of their children seven are living: Henry, William and Ben, of our city; Mrs. J. M. Jenkins, of Winchester; Mrs. Ollie Rogers, of Cincinnati, O.; Mrs. Florence McCormick, of Lexington; Charles, of Corbin. The funeral was held at the son's residence on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock by Rev. H. D. Clark. The burial in Macpherson was by the I. O. O. F. Lodge, of which he was an honored member. Mr. Senior has been a carriage maker and dealer and has had the confidence of people in their financial relations. He was a kind and generous father. He has many friends, whose sympathy is extended to his children in their sudden and great sorrow.
